Summary

With over 3 years of practical experience in UX/UI Design, I am adept at contributing to design production throughout the entire design lifecycle. I enjoy working with diverse teams to achieve meaningful results. I took on serious responsibilities in large projects and undertook the design and project management of the products from start to finish. At this point in my career, I am looking for opportunities based on my talents in Hamburg, where I have just moved. Nowadays, besides cooking, drawing and pottery I explore the city by taking photos and improve my language skills. I enjoy seeing things from a fresh perspective :)
